Church closed, all activities canceled until further notice. Acting on the recommendation of our presbytery, Falls Church Presbyterian is canceling all in-house church activities until further notice. Join us for “virtual worship” via Facebook Live on Sunday morning. “Like” us on Facebook to receive a notification when we go live. You can follow along with worship by clicking on the bulletin links in the Friday egram or church website. For those not on Facebook, the sermon will be prerecorded and posted on our website.

Pastoral care during social distancing. If you or your loved one is in need of pastoral care, James Sledge (jsledge@fallschurchpresby.org) and Diane Walton Hendricks (dhendricks@fallschurchpresby.org) are both available. The need for social distancing may require creative solutions at times, but we will find a way. While staff members are working from home to a large extent, there is a regular presence in the office. You are free to call, though you might need to leave a message. Someone will respond. And if you are at-risk from COVID-19, please let the pastors or deacons (deacons@fallschurchpresby.org) know if we can offer you support with specific tasks such as grocery shopping, picking up prescriptions, or other things that might put you at risk.

Crossing Paths, Family Table at Home emails. If you are on our mailing list, you may have noticed additional emails in your inbox this week: Crossing Paths and Family Table at Home.

Crossing Paths is designed to be a way to stay connected to each other, our community, and God. Crossing Paths are simple, daily reflections shared by the Falls Church Presbyterian community, available by email and on our Facebook page, Instagram, and Twitter. If you would like to share a prayer, poem, or scripture passage to be included in Crossing Paths, email Diane Walton Hendricks (dhendricks@fallschurchpresby.org). Your submission could be written by you, or something that has inspired you or recently brought you love, joy, or hope.

Family Table at Home is a one-page daily resource sent out by Director of Children, Youth, and Family Ministry Diane Maloney. Family Table at Home offers a daily scripture passage, discussion questions, suggestions on ways to get creative, and a prayer.

If you would like to receive these emails, contact the church office (office@fallschurchpresby.org) and we will happily add you to the list.
